Arctic Monkeys - I Wanna Be Yours Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

I Wanna Be Yours is very different from a lot of the poems that have been analysed on Free Poem Analysis. In terms of complexity it is simplistic. There is not a wealth of double meanings. This isn't a poem where the poet is "showing off" more a poem full of honesty. It is effectively the narrator emphasising their feelings towards their loved one.

Posted on 27/01/2017. by Robert Johnson. John Cooper Clarke – i wanna be yours. Now this brings back some happy memories for me, to see this included in one of the latest anthologies. I remember teaching this well over a decade ago and loving the language of this punk performance poet. The likes of Armitage and Duffy may give us the likes of a clown who is a punk and someone called Salome who acts in more disparate ways than her predecessor, but when it comes to performance poetry, as far ...

To His Coy Mistress and I Wanna Be Yours I am comparing the two poems 'To His Coy Mistress' by Andrew Marvell in 1621-1678 and 'I wanna be yours.' By John Cooper Clark. There are many similarities in these two poems, the main one is the fact that both the writers are writing to a woman describing his love for her.
