In Search of the Dark Ages is a BBC television documentary series, written and presented by historian Michael Wood, first shown between 1979 and 1981. It comprises eight short films across two series, each focusing on a particular character from the history of England prior to the Norman Conquest, a period popularly known as the Dark Ages. It is also the title of a book written by Wood to support the series, that was first published in 1981.

In Search of the Dark Watchers When visitors come to the Big Sur wilderness on California's central coast, they're often struck by how mystical and remote it feels. Some people even return with tales of encounters with a "presence" —a fleeting glimpse in the sun-dappled shadows, an eerie feeling in the stillness of the trees.
